Exhibition: BRUEGEL REVISITED
Contemporary art in the National Botanic Garden of Belgium

Which importance can be attached to the oeuvre and the thinking of Pieter Breugel in the 21st century? Bruegel Revisited invites Herman Asselberghs, Building Transmissions & Douglas Park, Anne Daems, Vincent Meessen, Hans Op De Beeck, Arno Roncada, Katrien Vermeire, Angelo Vermeulen and Dirk Zoete to search for an answer to this question. The exhibition is held in the Castle of Bouchout in the National Botanic Garden of Belgium in Meise.
