

The Tree of Life – a narrative method

Claire Wiewauters – pedagogue, psychotherapist, researcher, practice lecturer
Summer School – 5 juli 2018

Origin of the methodology : the tree of life

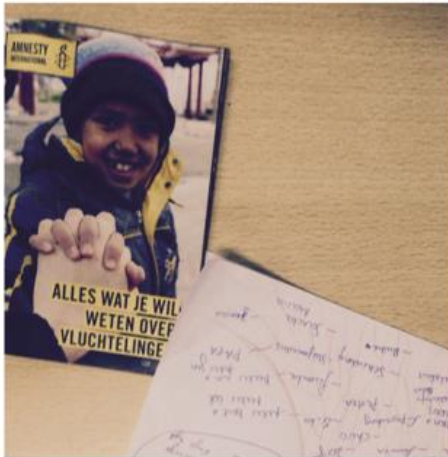

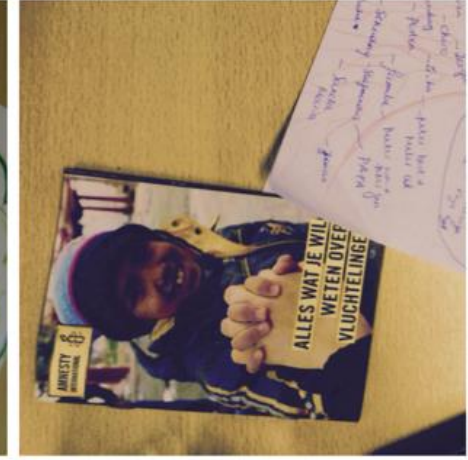

- Developed by Ncazelo Ncube & David Denborough
- Used for the first time in Southern Africa with children living in situations of negligence, abuse and violence and children suffering from HIV / aids.
- <http://dulwichcentre.com.au/the-tree-of-life/>
- The tree of life / the forest of life / when the storms come

A tree as a metaphor of life : the tree of life

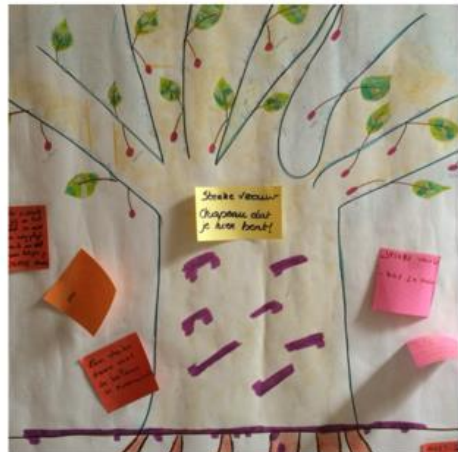

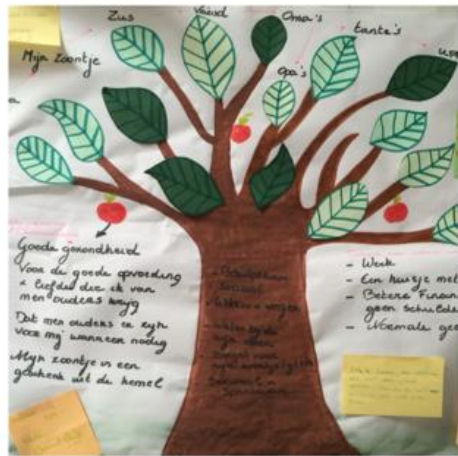

Valuable and identity strengthening stories, rooted in a social and cultural history

My knowledge and expertise

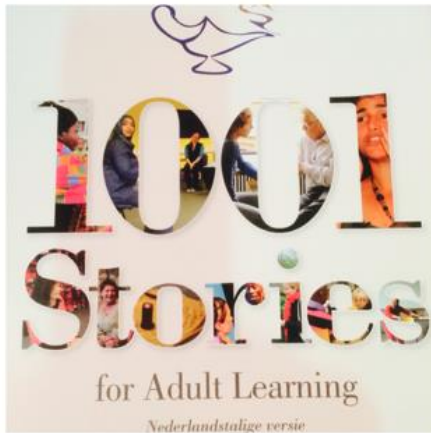

Academic year 2016-2017 : project group second year – students learn to use the methodology

Academic year 2016-2017 : project group second year – using the Tree of Life at the workplace

Tree of Life (3 november) – LOI Leuven – Abdul Kader / Afghanistan – unaccompanied minor refugee

Alden Biesen - 23 November 2017
 Stories of migrants and refugees

Muntpunt Brussel - 26 november - Festival of Sciences
 Tree of life : What people learn from the trees

A working frame

- Refugees : trauma and resilience
- Narrative therapy : postmodern and collaborative ideas
- Methodol : Tree of life
- Telling a story

'In my head I can be everywhere on any moment'

